How to Use This Devotional

Each devotion is keyed to a page of Leviticus & Romans: A Book Beyond Words. Open the book anywhere, note the page number, and find the matching p. 6 label here. The page numbers are the same in the paperback and hardcover editions.

Each devotion names the pairing it reflects on, with Leviticus in teal and Romans in red, as in the Echoes Bible logo. A short reflection follows, and then a prayer, set in italics, for you to make your own.

Introduction

Leviticus is probably the least favorite book of the Bible for most Christians, seemingly unrelatable because of the emphasis on the many commandments. But this pairing with Romans, one of the most essential books in the New Testament, unfolds more of the wisdom of God, hidden within both books. Instead of "the law" being overlooked, let Holy Spirit open the depths of the goodness and love of God that He wants to reveal. Even more stunningly, everything in Leviticus points to Jesus. Seeing His giving of Himself on the cross expressed through the five types of sacrificial offerings just begins the unveiling of Him in this book. The pairing of Leviticus with Romans amplifies the purpose of these scriptures. So, be prepared to see Jesus, as Holy Spirit takes each reader on the journey of the Echoes Bible.

p. 6 Leviticus 1:1 · Romans 1:1 We are all called, not just Moses and Paul. The Lord speaks to all those who are His and we are all set apart to Him for purpose. Let every word speak; let Holy Spirit speak. The Lord is speaking to us; He is calling us.

Open my ears to hear You, Lord. Open my heart to Holy Spirit.

p. 6 Leviticus 1:3 · Romans 1:2 We see Jesus as the whole burnt offering, fully giving Himself to the Father for us. This first sacrifice opens the Good News of the gospel. In response, we too, are called to offer ourselves as living sacrifices to Him. Rom. 12:1. The offering is without defect, as Jesus was perfect inwardly and outwardly. This speaks of our need to be purified, inwardly as well as outwardly. A whole burnt offering means a full surrender. He is our Savior and our Lord. He gave all and so we give Him our all. Everything we learn in the scripture calls for a response from us. The scripture is not just an intellectual exercise.

I surrender all I am to You, Lord.

p. 6 Leviticus 1:7 · Romans 1:4 It is the fire of God that is used to purify our lives and our faith. 1 Peter 1:7. This purification takes the cross to our self-life, and leads to the Holy Spirit being able to move in us with holiness and power. Jesus' sacrifice did not end with death, but with resurrection and power. Because of His obedience, when we receive Him and His sacrifice by faith, we too, live in resurrection life and the power of the Holy Spirit.

Teach me how to embrace Your cross, for the work of deliverance from my self-life, that I may live by Your life and power.

p. 7 Leviticus 1:14 · Romans 1:5 Even if one cannot afford a sacrifice from the herd, the way is still open to bring an offering of a turtledove or pigeon. Even if we are the least significant person in the Lord's kingdom, our offering is valuable to God. He makes a way for us, even Gentiles, as represented by the nations. The birds are not to be divided. 1 Cor. 1:10–13 and 3:3 clearly declare that all divisions among His people are works of the flesh. The Father and the Son are One. The body of Christ is one in Them. Judge the Body correctly and always keep the unity of the faith by seeing that we are one with all who call upon the name of the Lord. This is essential in our walk and communion. 1 Cor 11:29

Lord, let the reality of Your oneness with all who are Yours become real to me. Let me see every believer as my brother and sister, with no division, in Jesus' Name.

p. 7 Leviticus 2:1 · Romans 1:8 The next offering, the meal offering, emphasizes a drawing near to God. It is focused on relationship. It is an offering of meal made of fine flour, with oil and frankincense. Although Jesus was already perfect and agreed with the Father in everything He had been given to do, He suffered, being sifted by life's circumstances, rejections and misunderstandings. He showed us that as He was sifted, so shall we be, if we follow Him. On this earth, He had the comfort of Holy Spirit, as do we. All He suffered and all His obedience was a fragrant and pleasing aroma offering to the Father. This sacrifice is partly offered to God and partly eaten by the priests. Our acceptance of sufferings, appointed by Him, blesses Him and gives life to others. 2 Cor. 4:12

Lord, let me see that You have appointed my life's circumstances, rejections and difficulties to sift me, to grow me, that I may be an offering, pure and fragrant, pleasing to You.

p. 8 Leviticus 2:4 · Romans 1:10 There is no leaven in the meal offering. Oil and leaven cannot be mixed in this offering. How can sin (often represented by leaven) mix with what has fellowship with Holy Spirit (represented by the oil)? This is a sanctified life, drawing us away from the world and near to God. His life is imparted to us by faith for a walk with Him that is spiritual. How do we get there? Present ourselves to Him, repent of sin and ask Him to fill us with the Holy Spirit and teach us how to walk in His Spirit rather than walking in our natural self-life.

Lord, teach me how to walk by the Spirit, becoming increasingly sensitive to hearing Your voice. Convict me every time I walk in my own strength, instead of Yours.

p. 8 Leviticus 2:11 · Romans 1:13 How can we live in sin (yeast), or be guided by our own thoughts and ideas, and still bear fruit to God? We can't. Fruit only comes from His life in us. With the addition of salt, paired here in Romans with the preaching or study of the Word, our walk is transformed, just as the taste of food is enhanced and preserved. Through the Word, we increase our potential to bear much fruit which lasts.

I want to love Your Word more every day, Lord. Guide me, as I study and unfold Your many treasures to me.

p. 9 Leviticus 3:1 · Romans 1:16 With each new offering, we see new aspects of what Jesus has accomplished through the cross and what it means to offer ourselves as living sacrifices. We all experienced peace with God when we first received the Good News of Jesus, but this needs to be an on-going peace, as we daily give ourselves to Him. It is an offering made by fire, which reminds us that everything in us that does not come from faith and by His Spirit has to be purified in our life. Then the fellowship we have with the Father and Son and Holy Spirit will go from glory to glory. For us this offering, brings us into a spiritual reality of unity with the Father and the Son. We know we are one; the Bible tells us so in John 14:20. But to be transformed, we must give ourselves to walk daily, in union with Him.

Lord, I present myself to You, as a living sacrifice. Transform me by the renewing of my mind, in Jesus' Name.

p. 10 Leviticus 3:12 · Romans 1:18 God does not despise anyone. Job 36:5. But sin keeps us separated from Him. In order to cover our sin, Jesus stepped in to be that sacrifice, to take our sin on Himself, and our punishment. 2 Corinthians 5:21. This peace offering is also called a fellowship offering. His death made peace with God for our sake, so we can enter into His presence and fellowship with Him.

Thank You for Your great love, Lord. Fill me with Your love for others, that I may express Your desire to bring them into fellowship with You.

p. 11 Leviticus 4:1 · Romans 1:21 The last two offerings are the sin and guilt offerings. This echo brings our attention to the fact that the sin offering is for unintentional sins! Not willful sins! Our carelessness, which causes this kind of sin, is addressed by a blood sacrifice. Only His blood can cover our sin. The echo also reminds us that unintentional sins do not glorify God. This offering addresses our daily carelessness of our words and actions. How much darkness are we operating in, if we are not acutely aware of whether our daily decisions glorify Him or not? Do our words bless or curse? Are our actions selfish, even without being aware of it? Let us come to Him for cleansing and for our consciences to be purified and made sensitive to His Spirit and His Word.

Only You, Lord, can convict me of careless sins. Open my eyes and heart to see, in order that I may repent and turn from hidden sins.

p. 11 Leviticus 4:8 · Romans 1:22 The sin offering is burned in its entirety. Let Him search us fully and deliver us from every sin.

Lord, I give You complete access to my heart. Search me and teach me. I trust You.

p. 12 Leviticus 4:13 · Romans 1:24 The sins of the nation are not overlooked. He has made a provision of deliverance for nations as well as individuals. We confess our sins as a nation, for forgiveness and deliverance, even if we are only a very small part of the whole. His word is powerful. Do we believe? Psalm 33:12. The blood of Jesus is powerful enough to cleanse a nation, even in our day.

Forgive our nation, O Lord, of our many sins. Turn and heal our land, in Jesus' Name. 2 Chronicles 7:14.

p. 12 Leviticus 4:22 · Romans 1:26 We are charged to pray for the leaders of our nation, 1 Timothy 2:1-2. They greatly need to be covered by our prayers, for God's purposes. Even if they never know, the Father sees our obedience and hears our faith.

We ask Your wisdom for our leaders, Lord, and that You would convict them of sin and cause them to fear You. Bless them with Your presence and an understanding of the ways to walk, in order to bless our nation.

p. 13 Leviticus 4:27 · Romans 1:28 There is no sin that the blood of Jesus cannot cover! He has made provision! Even the hardest heart can be moved by His power and love! See how much He loves each one and don't neglect this prayer.

Thank You, Lord, that You lovingly created every person with purpose and destiny. Cause many eyes to be opened today, to see You and know You. Bring many into Your great salvation!

p. 14 Leviticus 5:1 · Romans 1:32 All that we do, or don't do, and all of our words testify!! We are either glorifying God or we are not. Every word we speak is a testimony, positive or negative, a blessing or a curse.

Lord, put a guard at my lips, that all my words may bless You and others. Convict me of every thoughtless word.

p. 15 Leviticus 5:7 · Romans 2:1 The Lord makes a way for us in all of our circumstances, so that we are without excuse. Look for His path and He will be faithful to lead us and reveal the way to go. The question is, do we choose to look for Him and find His way through?

Lord, I confess, that often I want to figure out what to do, without turning to You. Forgive me. Remind me to seek You in everything. I know that if I seek You, I will find You. Give me a seeking heart.

p. 16 Leviticus 5:14 · Romans 2:4 God has made a provision for us, a covering for every sin. Do we choose to run to Him, repent and be cleansed? Establish a heart of repentance, a lifestyle of repentance before Him.

Lord, I want that lifestyle of repentance. I want to live in daily fellowship with You. Cause my desire for You to be greater than anything else.

p. 17 Leviticus 6:1 · Romans 2:5 Our conscience needs to be sensitive to any false way that we have chosen. Then, be willing to accept the consequences of sin and pay back in full and more. When we have cleansed our heart before Him, our conscience will be cleansed also. We will all stand before the Lord, when every undealt with matter will be exposed, no matter how small. Clear every account with Him now, while there is time.

Lord, convict me of sin against anyone and show me the way to make restitution. Thank You, Lord.

p. 18 Leviticus 6:8 · Romans 2:12 Every word, every instruction, every command from the Lord is for our benefit. He has made abundant provision. His Word provides us everything we need to know, in order to walk out His will in our lives.

Teach me Your Word and show me Your ways, that my life may become a glory to You.

p. 18 Leviticus 6:19 · Romans 2:13 We love to hear God's Word, but the doing and obeying are harder. Make a decision that what we hear, we will obey! Let obedience become a joy! If it isn't, ask Him to work in our hearts to change obedience from something we want to avoid, to something we do with joy. He is able to work miracles!

Thank You, Lord, that You desire to bring my life unto obedience with all Your Word. Work that deeply in my heart.

p. 19 Leviticus 6:24 · Romans 2:14 The sin offering is eaten in the court, implying it is available to all men. Pray that conviction of sin would fall on every individual, those near and those far. Pray that a desire for the Savior would rise up in every heart, in Jesus' Name. He died for all. All anyone has to do is to choose to receive the gift of God's Son.

Work in many hearts today. Draw them to You. Open their eyes to see they have a hope of salvation, cleansing and forgiveness, through Jesus, Your Son. Bring many to see their need for You. Thank You, Lord.

p. 20 Leviticus 7:1 · Romans 2:17 There is a sin offering and a trespass offering. Jesus died to cover our individual sins, but also to put to death the power of sin. He died for our sins and for us to be set free from our sin nature. We are dead to sin and alive to God. Rom. 6:11. Our sin nature is the subject of Romans chapter 6. Believe and stand in the complete victory of Jesus over sin. The skin of the offering reminds us of the Lord slaying the animal to cover Adam and Eve in Genesis 3. No amount of our self-righteousness can cover sin. Only a perfect sacrifice, Jesus, can deliver us from our individual sins and our sin nature.

I receive all that You accomplished through Your death, burial and resurrection. Thank You for cleansing me and delivering me from the power of sin, by Your precious blood.

p. 21 Leviticus 7:11 · Romans 2:21 Looking again at the peace offering, we are reminded that through Jesus' death and sacrifice, God's purpose is to bring us into peace and fellowship with Him. He wants a relationship with us. Many are outwardly observant of the Word, but inwardly careless. All hypocrisy will be exposed. Now is the time to come to Him and let our outward life and our inward life be reconciled. Let Him expose our hearts to us, let us repent and receive from Him the inward change of heart that we need.

Lord, I trust You to finish Your work in my life as long as I live. Correct me, deliver me and encourage me. Sanctify me completely, spirit, soul and body.

p. 22 Leviticus 7:22 · Romans 2:26 The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. As we take seriously the instructions concerning the Lord's sacrifices, we honor Him. Our inward heart stays in a place of humility and thankfulness.

Yes, Lord, I run to bow before You and humble myself. Have Your way in my life.

p. 22 Leviticus 7:35 · Romans 2:29 All of these outward requirements as well as the obedience on the part of Moses and the priests, all point to the spiritual reality of God's work through His Son in our lives. We are consecrated to Him, not by letter but by the Spirit. Give Holy Spirit free access to every part, so that He conforms us to His image.

Transform me daily to Your image, Lord. Only You can fully change my heart, mind and life to be a reflection of You.

p. 23 Leviticus 8:1 · Romans 3:1 Spiritual revelation and understanding are gifts from God. How we need revelation! Ask and it will be given.

Open my eyes to see You and my ears to hear You, Lord. Unfold Your scripture to me daily, so that I can see You as You are. Open my heart to obey You, with joy!

p. 24 Leviticus 8:14 · Romans 3:9 We must clearly see our utter helplessness to remedy our sin problem. His sacrifice is essential. We run to the mercy seat!

Father, by Your Holy Spirit anoint my ears, my hands and my feet for Your service. Thank You, Lord.

p. 25 Leviticus 8:30 · Romans 3:15 Aaron and his garments were sanctified before the Lord. We bring ourselves and all we have to Him, for sanctification and service. Spend time with Him and ask Him to touch everything in our lives. We are not our own, we are bought with a price. 1 Corinthians 6:20.

I bring all I am and all I have and lay everything at Your feet, Jesus. Bless my life with Your purpose and desire.

p. 26 Leviticus 9:1 · Romans 3:19 Jesus' sacrifice has made a way for us to come near to God. There is nothing in ourselves that can accomplish what Jesus has accomplished. Jesus, who knew no sin, became sin for us that we might become the righteousness of God in Him. 2 Corinthians 5:21

I praise and thank You, Lord, for all You have done to free me from the bondage of sin and death!

p. 27 Leviticus 9:6 · Romans 3:21 These echoes reveal the greatness of Jesus' obedience and sacrifice, which opens to us the avenue to know Him and receive all because of Him. Worship Him!

I worship You alone, Almighty Father, Son and Holy Spirit. You have done everything I need. You are everything I need. Praise Your Holy Name!

p. 28 Leviticus 9:15 · Romans 3:27 Without faith it is impossible to please God. Hebrews 11:6. Even faith is a gift from God. Ephesians 2:8. We are completely dependent upon Him.

I believe Lord, help my unbelief to become strong trust in You and every word You speak.

p. 28 Leviticus 9:22 · Romans 3:28 His glory appears to all the people! They fell on their faces! His glory appears to us now, spiritually by faith. One day all will see Him. 2 Corinthians 3:18 and 4:4.

Lord, I see Jesus. I look full in His wonderful face of love. I offer You all my worship.

p. 29 Leviticus 10:1 · Romans 4:1 We often think we know something, but we know nothing yet as we ought to know. 1 Corinthians 8:2. There is nothing we can accomplish, nothing we can bring to God, except the blood of Jesus and what He has produced in our hearts, by His Spirit. We humble ourselves and this is how we avoid presumptuous sins. Everything we have done will be revealed by fire and only what is of Him will last. Let Him reveal the difference today, so that we will not build with wood, hay and stubble. 1 Corinthians 3:12–13.

Only You can teach me to walk by Your Spirit, so that You are able to build with gold, silver and precious stones in my life. Do this in me, Lord.

p. 30 Leviticus 10:8 · Romans 4:6 The Lord has a way for our sins to be covered and for us to live daily in right standing before Him. We do not want to fall back into establishing our own righteousness. Faith and obedience are the way. Believe Him, believe His word and obey Him!

Lord, I believe Your word, every verse and every word in scripture. Build my life on that firm foundation. Thank You, Lord!

p. 31 Leviticus 11:1 · Romans 4:9 The word "uncircumcised" describes Abraham's state before he believed God; in that sense we all were uncircumcised, or unclean. Now, we have a way to draw near to Him and be cleansed daily. We hear Him calling us into fellowship with His Son. 1 Corinthians 1:9. It is our high calling.

I love to be in fellowship with You, Father and Son and Holy Spirit. Let our communion and fellowship be constant. Thank You, Lord.

p. 32 Leviticus 11:9 · Romans 4:13 We are heirs. Because of our calling, we live differently than the world. Looking at the diet of the unclean animals and birds, we can see that the unclean eat dead things. Unclean fish are bottom feeders, eating the waste of others. We are not called to pollute ourselves by what we do or eat, but to live a life free of all unhealthy things on the earth, physically and spiritually.

My fellowship is with the Lord of Life and all who are joined to Him. Keep me on Your path of life, Lord. Convict me when I stray.

p. 33 Leviticus 11:24 · Romans 4:16 The Lord always makes a way back to Himself for us. He has given us the gift of faith to believe and receive His promises.

Thank You, that the way back to You is always open. I repent, turn and run to You, receiving and believing all Your promises.

p. 34 Leviticus 11:41 · Romans 4:20 Anything that "goes on its belly" reminds us of the curse on the serpent in the garden. Not only has God given us the victory over sin through Jesus, but also He has given us victory over the powers of evil. Jesus' name, His blood and His finished work are our strong weapons. The sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God will defeat every plan that comes against us. Let us stand in all the victory Jesus has won.

Lord, I stand in Your victory. I pull down every stronghold that has risen against me, in Jesus' Name. I submit to God and resist the enemy and he must flee. James 4:7.

p. 35 Leviticus 11:44 · Romans 5:1 We are called to be sanctified, spirit, soul and body. 1 Thessalonians 5:23. By faith, we present ourselves to Him, including our mind, emotions and will, to be transformed from all that is self-centered to all that is in agreement with Him and Who He is. This is a daily prayer.

Yes, Lord, I present myself to You. Transform my mind, emotions and will to perfect alignment with Your mind, emotions and will, Jesus. I agree with You!

p. 35 Leviticus 11:45 · Romans 5:3 To be holy is to be set apart to God. We allow God, by faith, to do a deep work in us, so that there is no duplicity between what we present outwardly and our innermost heart. Our flesh suffers in this process, but our spirit rejoices!

Yes, Lord, I give You permission to do a deep work in me, so that my innermost heart, my actions and words become one in You. Thank You, Lord!

p. 35 Leviticus 11:46 · Romans 5:6 Even in our sinful state, Jesus died for all! He made no distinction as to who He died for. The distinction comes between those who choose to believe and receive His gift, and those who do not. There is also a distinction between believers who choose to obey His word and those who are compromised in their obedience. These distinctions will not be fully known by all until the time of harvest, when Jesus comes again. But if we desire to be among those who are obedient, we can ask Him to judge our hearts now, and show us every hidden compromise and avoidance, so that we can be fully sanctified. This is a daily prayer.

Judge me and show me every compromise and avoidance of obedience to You and Your word. Finish Your good work in me until I am fully sanctified!

p. 36 LEVITICUS 12:1 · ROMANS 5:9 This passage pairing links the incredible miracle of a child being born to a woman and the miracle of God incarnate being born on the earth! We worship Him forever, for God's gift of children and for the gift of His Son!

Thank You, Father, for the gift of Your Son! We worship You as our source of life and hope.

p. 37 LEVITICUS 13:1 · ROMANS 5:15 The different stages of this disease point to different degrees of trespasses. Was it a one-time sin, or habitual? The remedy is the same. By coming to the priest, one has to admit he has a problem and that it needs to be addressed. Jesus is our Priest! We come to Him and repent, turn from sin and He will forgive and cleanse us by the gracious gift of Himself and His blood shed for us.

O, Lord, I come to You. I confess my sin and receive Your forgiveness and cleansing. Thank You.

p. 38 LEVITICUS 13:9 · ROMANS 5:16 The Lord's desire is that we are clean, free from sin, so we can live in unbroken fellowship. He has made every provision. All we need to do is humble ourselves, repent and receive our cleansing.

Lord, I humble myself before You and receive all You have done for me.

p. 39 LEVITICUS 13:18 · ROMANS 5:18 Healing from the wounds of our own sin, or the sins of others, is ours through Jesus' act of righteousness! Appreciate this every day.

Today, Father, I bring to You my deepest hurts from the past or present. Touch these places in my heart and heal all my wounds. Thank You, Lord.

p. 40 LEVITICUS 13:29 · ROMANS 5:19 How many are our disobediences to God and His Word? Because of His obedience, we can be made righteous! Repent and receive.

Thank You for Your obedience, Lord Jesus. I receive Your cleansing. Cause my heart to turn away from any sin.

p. 41 LEVITICUS 13:47 · ROMANS 5:20 The law came so we can see our sin. Even our adversities, cause us to seek the Lord and examine our lives. As we turn to Him and seek to know Him, His grace will abound, more and more to us.

I seek You, Lord! Teach me today more of You through all my circumstances.

p. 42 Leviticus 14:1 · Romans 6:1 The Jewish practice of washing in water meant going to a mikvah and fully immersing themselves for cleansing. John the Baptist called all to repentance and to dip in the Jordan River, as a sign of repentance. Paul also, tells believers to show their repentance and acceptance of Jesus' redemption, by being baptized, as Jesus modeled for us. Daily, we receive cleansing by repentance and washing of the Word. This is an essential part of our spiritual practice. First, be baptized in Jesus' name in water. Then, be cleansed daily by His water and His word.

Thank You, for Your cleansing power which daily keeps me in unbroken fellowship with You.

p. 43 Leviticus 14:14 · Romans 6:4b God's desire for a relationship, for fellowship with us is so great, that He made every provision to cover our sin and lead us into a knowledge of Him. He sacrificed everything, even His own Son. We receive His provision, His gift, by faith and walk in a new life.

Father, let me value the fellowship You have called me into, with You and Your Son, as You do.

p. 44 Leviticus 14:30 · Romans 6:4b No one is excluded. Anyone who wants to draw near, can come. From the richest to the poorest, He has reached out to everyone, that all may walk in newness of life, through Him.

Renew my heart and my spirit every day, Lord, to walk in the new life You have purchased for me.

p. 44 Leviticus 14:33 · Romans 6:5 Even our dwellings and our things can become polluted. We dedicate our homes and all our belongings to Him. If the Lord shows us anything we need to dispose of, obey Him. Some things carry a pollution or curse. Anoint and pray over your home and dedicate it to Him.

Lord, I dedicate my home to You. Fill my home with Your Holy Spirit and use it as a place of rest and fellowship with You.

p. 45 Leviticus 14:43 · Romans 6:7 Seek the Lord concerning any recurring illnesses that may suggest a curse is at work. Jesus took every curse with Him to the cross. If needed, find knowledgeable people who can help to renounce and cover these issues. We do not need to live with any curse.

Lord, expose any curse that has affected my family or me. I choose to be delivered from every snare of the enemy, for the sake of Your kingdom.

p. 46 Leviticus 14:49 · Romans 6:10 The Lord has made every provision for us to be set free from sin, sickness and any curse. His desire is to see us living in His abundant life!

Thank You, that Your desire for me is that I would be set free. I receive Your freedom and Your abundant life!

p. 47 Leviticus 15:1 · Romans 6:12 Sin is natural and habitual to our natural man. We are naturally selfish, self-centered beings, because of sin. Through His death, He has set us free from sin, but we must choose either to continue to live by our natural life, or refuse to let our selfish nature have the first place in our thought life. Instead, we surrender ourselves to Him, for Him to rule and reign in our thinking and desires. This is the path of life and peace.

I surrender my life, my thinking, my desires, and my will to You, Lord. Rule and reign in every aspect of my life.

p. 48 Leviticus 15:13 · Romans 6:15 Obedience is really simple. Do what the Lord says, through His strength. We will not always understand, but we can always trust Him. Stop arguing in your mind and accept His ways. Choose to walk in His ways no matter what. Then, grace and peace are yours in daily experience. These verses help to keep us sensitive to any sin or death operating in our lives and to receive His provision that covers our sin.

Teach me the joy of obeying You. Put a heart of obedience in me to hear and do, for Your glory, Lord.

p. 49 Leviticus 15:19 · Romans 6:17 A woman's monthly cycle comes when there is no child in the womb. The flow then, is a lost opportunity for new life. If there is no life, the flow speaks of death. All death must be covered by cleansing, since no death can come into His presence. He makes provision even in this.

Lord, there is nothing that You have not made provision for! I worship You!

p. 50 Leviticus 15:31 · Romans 6:19 Our God cannot have sin or death in His presence. But He desires for us to be in His presence. Let Him show us any sin or death working in our lives, so we can receive forgiveness and live daily in His presence.

Show me any hidden sin in my life, Lord. I refuse to let sin and death have any power over me! I am a child of the Living God!

p. 51 Leviticus 16:1 · Romans 6:23 Through the death of Jesus, we have entered into freedom from the law of sin and death. He died so we can live! Now we can live in full access to the Father. Treasure this fact! Rejoice and live daily before Him.

I rejoice that You have delivered me into freedom, to live fully by Your life, with continual face to face communion with You, Lord.

p. 52 Leviticus 16:9 · Romans 7:5 He died so we can receive newness of life, by His Spirit! He laid down His physical life and His soul life, even though His body and soul were not corrupted by sin. We follow Him by laying down our soul life, self-life, so that He can transform us into His image.

Lord, I desire to follow You daily. I lay down my life. Let me fulfill the purpose and destiny that You created for me.

p. 53 Leviticus 16:16 · Romans 7:12 Daily, the blood is always active. We cover ourselves daily by His blood!

Yes, Lord, I am covered by the blood of Jesus!

p. 53 Leviticus 16:20 · Romans 7:15 Sin gives a momentary pleasure, but it leads to death. We will always be human in our present life, and so as humans we are weak and think first of what we want. Acknowledge that. Our flesh never improves. Although we are weak, He is strong. Holy Spirit can fill us daily and change our desires to be in line with His desires. Allow that process. That is what it means to take up our cross.

Lord, I acknowledge my selfish heart. Only You can transform me from my thoughts and ways to Yours.

p. 54 Leviticus 16:23 · Romans 7:21 Living daily as a believer, we need to acknowledge the pull of old habits and desires. Face these things, by the light of His Word. Recognize when we are living by our own soul desires and surrender it again. The power to live by the life of Christ is available by His Spirit. Choose to live by His life. Gradually there is more freedom from our soul's dominance and His Spirit can fill us more and more.

Lord, I lay down my old life and habits. Fill me with Your Spirit. Teach me to live by Your life and walk in Your Spirit.

p. 55 Leviticus 16:29 · Romans 8:1 The Day of Atonement is the most holy day of the year. It is a day of judgment for sin, for cleansing and becoming one with Him in every way. It also points to the coming kingdom, when all will be judged. Choose daily to walk in all the good of His provision for our life in the Spirit. Live now as we will live then, in the fulness of His Spirit.

I ask You, Father, to deal with me now on every issue and bring me to judge myself as You see me. Teach me to live in a fulness of understanding of all Your provisions for me.

p. 55 Leviticus 16:32 · Romans 8:3 The atonement is not just so we can go to heaven when this life is over. Atonement gives us a way to be one with the Father and the Son, today. That is God's desire! We can set our hearts to live in that oneness, by surrendering our thoughts for His thoughts and living by His Spirit Life. Daily, bring yourself into alignment with the mind, emotions and will of Jesus. Then, gradually, His Spirit within us, begins to have first place and we can hear Him.

Today, Lord, I align my thoughts and heart with Your thoughts and heart, Jesus. Have first place in my life.

p. 56 Leviticus 17:1 · Romans 8:9 Know the difference between man's way and God's way. Recognize whether our well-intentioned human thinking is operating, or the life of the Spirit of Christ is at work. One way is life and the other is not. As we discern the difference, Holy Spirit is teaching us to lay down our thinking and live by the leading of Holy Spirit. This is a process.

Teach me Lord, to discern between my human thinking and Yours, so that all my works of the flesh cease and only You would be glorified.

p. 57 Leviticus 17:8 · Romans 8:15 Those who were not born Jews have a way to God, but still we must take a yoke of obedience to the Lord, as do the sons. We who were far from God have been brought near. We cry, "Abba, Father!" Know there is suffering in obedience, as we bring every aspect of our words and our lives into submission to Him.

Thank You, Lord, for Your open door for me. Thank You, Abba, Father! Teach me to obey.

p. 58 Leviticus 18:1 · Romans 8:18 We are in the world, but not of the world. Just as the children of Israel left Egypt (the world), yet Egypt was still part of their thinking, so we are the same. All the weaknesses of Israel are our weaknesses. Ask the Lord to show us every place we have compromised and ask Him to deliver us from worldly thinking. We must say, "No," to that pull and "Yes," to being filled with His Spirit. The flesh always tugs at us, to turn away from Him, but the glory of turning to Him is immense.

Teach me, Lord, to turn to You always. Show me what it means that "when I am weak, then I am strong." 2 Corinthians 12:10.

p. 59 Leviticus 18:5 · Romans 8:19 Living in obedience to His ways, frees us from every bondage and prepares us for the revelation of His glory. If we suffer with Him, we will also reign with Him. 2 Timothy 2:12

Lord, help me not to refuse to suffer with You. Give me a heart of courage.

p. 60 Leviticus 18:24 · Romans 8:23 We have a taste of what is to come, the first fruits of the Spirit. As we wait for the fulness of our adoption to be revealed, we keep ourselves from being defiled by the spirit of this world. He wants to make us sensitive to His Spirit's presence and leading every day, so that we walk in unity with Him.

Teach me daily, Lord, to walk in unity with You.

p. 61 Leviticus 19:1 · Romans 8:26 To be holy is to be set apart. We are not common. Our separation from living by the natural life and instead, living by God's life, by His Spirit, is essential to God's purposes. His Spirit gives us His words and His will to pray. Surrender the self-life and yield to Holy Spirit for everything! Then His purposes are fulfilled in us and His image shines through our lives.

Lord, I yield to Holy Spirit in every aspect of my life. Shine through me for Your Kingdom's sake.

p. 61 Leviticus 19:5 · Romans 8:31 Jesus accomplished everything on this earth, that we might live in oneness with the Father and the Son. During our brief time on earth, we must set our hearts to obey Him, by agreeing with His word and walking in His ways. To be His disciple means we are under His discipline.

Instruct me, Lord, in everything it means to be Your disciple.

p. 62 Leviticus 19:9 · Romans 8:37 Avoid the natural impulse of taking the best of everything for ourselves. Ask the Lord to change our hearts from being self-centered, to seeing others as the Lord sees them and caring for them with His heart of love. This is the Lord's love being activated in our hearts.

Fill me with Your love, Lord. Let me see others as You do.

p. 62 Leviticus 19:11 · Romans 9:1 All of our thoughts and actions toward others matter greatly to the Lord. God's heart is seen in Paul's willingness to lay down everything in his own life, for the sake of the gospel and those who do not know Him. There is no limit to God's love.

Show me anything in my heart toward another, that is not in agreement with You, Lord. Change my heart toward those You love.

p. 63 Leviticus 19:17 · Romans 9:6 Regularly check our hearts for any grudge or bitterness against anyone, no matter how large or small. Forgive and exercise a heart to love, as the Lord loves. Every prejudice, against every people group needs to be surrendered to Him. Each person is created in His image and there is always hope that they will know the Lord. We choose Him daily and pray for many to lift up their eyes and choose Him this day.

Forgive me for every judgment and prejudice. Cleanse me and deliver me into Your heart toward others.

p. 64 Leviticus 19:20 · Romans 9:14 The Lord has compassion for the least among us and has made provision for them. He has a way of cleansing for every sinner. He also has provision for the well-being of the land itself and its fruit. As we surrender to His wisdom and His ways, we show who He is in all the earth!

I ask that You would put Your compassion for people and for the land in my heart, Father. Thank You!

p. 65 Leviticus 19:26 · Romans 9:19 Superstitions of any kind are sin and do not glorify God. They are a bondage from the enemy. If we have practiced any of these things, we can repent, renounce and break off every curse, in Jesus' name! Take back every area in our lives that has given ground to the enemy. We are vessels for honor.

I repent of every superstition. I renounce and break them off of my life and thinking. Thank You, Lord, for this deliverance.

p. 66 LEVITICUS 20:1 · ROMANS 9:27 If the LORD is our God, then we cannot entertain any relationship or involvement with "other gods." Ask the Holy Spirit to search our hearts and reveal any ground we have given to other spiritual forces or idols in our lives. Be ruthless on this issue before the Lord, to root out every soul tie to anything, other than King Jesus. Ask Him to give us spiritual eyes to discern these things.

Open my eyes to see anything I have cared for more than You, Lord. I repent and return to You as my first love.

p. 67 LEVITICUS 20:9 · ROMANS 9:29B If the Lord calls something sin, it is sin. We do not stop loving those who sin, but we must know what is sin. Ours is a walk of faith and obedience, covered by love.

Teach me to call sin, sin, not to judge others, but to accept Your judgments. Teach me to love sinners, as You have loved me.

p. 68 LEVITICUS 20:22 · ROMANS 10:1 Christ is the fulfillment of all of the Torah. He is our inheritance, our land. But how do we make that a living reality in our daily lives? It is by obedience, not to a list of rules, but to every word of the Lord and by His Spirit of Life. Ask for His heart of obedience and love to fill us. Only His life worked into our hearts can bring the fruit we desire.

Lord, I ask You to put a heart of obedience in me. Fill me with Your love, so that fruit that is pleasing to You comes from my life.

p. 68 LEVITICUS 20:26 · ROMANS 10:8 When we first believe, we confess Jesus is Lord and we are accepted by the Father. We are cleansed and made holy, separated out unto Him. This is just the beginning. The rest of our lives, we learn the depths and heights of knowing our Lord and letting Him have full access to our hearts.

I want to know You, Lord. Teach me all Your heart desires to teach me.

p. 69 LEVITICUS 21:1 · ROMANS 10:14 Jesus is the Bread of Life. Jesus is the Word of God. We live by every word of God, by eating the bread of life. He is our life source and there is no other. The world's bread is not able to feed our souls and satisfy our hearts. Ask Him to put a desire for Him and His word in our hearts. Take and eat!

Father, put a desire for Your word in my heart. Teach me to eat of the Bread of Life, daily.

p. 70 Leviticus 21:10 · Romans 10:19 When Jesus returned to heaven after fulfilling His work on earth, He was anointed in heaven as described in Psalm 133. The oil of Holy Spirit ran down His garments as the dew descends on Mt. Zion. On the Day of Pentecost, the oil of Holy Spirit ran down from His garment to earth and filled His disciples. Holy Spirit has come and the ecclesia was born. Now the way is open for all people to hear the good news of Jesus and receive the power of Holy Spirit, for life and for a witness to others.

Let me be one who shares the good news of Jesus, with power and Spirit, Lord. Thank You!

p. 71 Leviticus 21:16 · Romans 11:1 Even though we are blood bought and filled with His Spirit, we need to be alert to our blindness, our weakness and our tendency to think in a self-centered way. The church has not replaced Israel! Our God is the God of Israel and His gifts and calling are without repentance. Romans 11:29. Always stand with the Lord for His people. God is at work in His people, Israel.

Yes, Lord, I love Your people, Israel. Bless Israel with protection and fulfillment of all Your promises.

p. 72 Leviticus 21:21 · Romans 11:11b The day will come when the Lord will open the eyes of the nation of Israel. Even today, He is opening the eyes of many individual Jews to see that Yeshua is Messiah. Our attitude as Gentiles, who love the Lord, is to humble ourselves and be thankful for His people, Israel. Always keep our hearts in that place of love, because He loves His people.

Teach me to love Your people, Israel, today, Lord. Let me be a witness of Your love for Israel.

p. 73 Leviticus 22:1 · Romans 11:16 Approaching a Holy God begins by humbling ourselves and accepting the way He has directed us to approach Him. We cannot have a pure heart before God and have a wrong attitude toward His people, Israel. They are His greatly loved people. They are the root and we Gentile believers are the grafted in branches. Assess our hearts in the light of what God says.

Lord, give me a heart of love for Israel and every Jewish person. They are the apple of Your eye! Deut. 32:10

p. 74 Leviticus 22:4 · Romans 11:23 The desire of God for a people, who are called by His Name, knows no bounds. He will pursue us until we turn and pursue Him. Some verses are often ignored, but He is repeatedly showing us how to approach Him, with clean hands and a clean heart. No matter how long we have walked with the Lord, repentance and humility remain our daily approach to Him.

I humble myself before You, Lord. Teach me Your ways. All Your ways are good.

p. 75 Leviticus 22:10 · Romans 11:25 All Israel will be saved! They are His beloved people and always will be. He is the Lord, Who sanctifies them. Let His love for His people fill our hearts!

Thank You, Lord, that all Israel will be saved! I praise and thank You, that You are faithful in all Your promises.

p. 76 Leviticus 22:17 · Romans 12:1 From the beginning, the Lord has always included non-Jewish God-fearing people in His purposes. God has a way for us, but it is our responsibility to accept His ways. Just as we are, we daily present ourselves to God as a living sacrifice. As we give Him all we are, He transforms us from all that is self-centered, to all that is like Him. Our path is one of surrender to Him, which will result in life and much fruitfulness.

I surrender to You, Lord, and trust You to do all Your good work in me!

p. 77 Leviticus 22:29 · Romans 12:9 We live one day at a time. We give ourselves to Him each day. As we ask Him for eyes to see others as He sees them, we will be filled with His love for them. Ask Him to renew our minds and hearts daily, to live Christ today! We need His Spirit. He is the One who empowers us to live by His life.

Lord, renew my mind to agree with Your thoughts. Fill me with Your Spirit and power.

p. 78 Leviticus 22:32 · Romans 13:1 How do we show the whole earth the testimony of who God is? We keep His Word and let Him fulfill His heart's desire through us. We owe no man anything, but to love them! Only when He transforms our lives, are we able, by His life, to love each one.

Lord, plant Your word deeply in my heart, so that Your word informs every moment of my life. Fill me with Your love.

p. 79 Leviticus 23:1 · Romans 13:11 The Lord's feasts are His appointed times. They have been given to all of us. Many of the feasts will continue to be celebrated when the Lord returns. Enter into and enjoy these appointed times. The Lord is waiting for each of us to meet Him at His feasts. Sabbath is the first appointed time, given to us in Genesis 2. It is a weekly time to celebrate and meet with Him.

Teach me Your feasts, Lord. Show me the importance of Shabbat, that I may honor You.

p. 80 Leviticus 23:4 · Romans 14:1 The spring feasts have a fulfilment in Jesus' first coming. The first spring feast is Passover, or Pesach. At Passover, He is the Lamb, sacrificed to God as a first fruit offering, to bring as many as would receive Him, into fellowship with the Father. We do not judge how anyone keeps these feasts. Let the Lord exercise our hearts as to how He wants us to enter into His appointed times.

Teach me how I can honor You at Passover, Lord.

p. 81 Leviticus 23:13 · Romans 14:5 The next spring feast is the counting of the Omer, which counts seven weeks until the following feast, which is Pentecost, or Shavuot. The Lord wants us to count in anticipation of this celebration. Pentecost celebrates the giving of Torah and God's covenant with the people of Israel at Mt. Sinai. A fulfillment of Pentecost happened in Acts 2, when Holy Spirit was poured out on the earth and many of His disciples received Him.

Lord, give me excitement and anticipation for Pentecost. Pour out Your Spirit on me and on the whole earth.

p. 82 Leviticus 23:23 · Romans 14:7 The fall feasts look forward to fulfillment when Messiah comes in His glory to earth. God's only command on Rosh Hashanah, or head of the year, is to blow the shofar. The shofar awakens us to days of preparation for His coming. Ten days later, comes the most holy feast, the Day of Atonement. It is a day of judgment, to settle all accounts from the previous year. Sin is judged and we receive atonement and cleansing. This is the one day of the year that the High Priest presents an offering of blood on the mercy seat, in the Holy of Holies. We run to the mercy seat for cleansing.

Thank You, Jesus, for standing in my place and taking God's judgment for me. I receive Your blood bought cleansing of all my sins.

p. 83 Leviticus 23:33 · Romans 14:13 The last fall feast is a joyous celebration. This feast of Tabernacles or Sukkot, commemorates Israel's time of living in shelters in the wilderness and it looks forward to the kingdom of Messiah on earth! This is a feast of great rejoicing. Let us walk in the joy of the Lord and choose to rejoice always!

Fill my heart with joy, Lord, for our King is coming to rule on the earth!

p. 84 Leviticus 23:41 · Romans 14:20 Sukkot, or Feast of Tabernacles, reminds us that we live on earth temporarily, yet each day, our choices have eternal value. Live each day to honor the Lord and to love others. Ask Him to make us aware of our daily choices, in order to lay up treasure in heaven.

Lord, give me understanding and sensitivity to Your Spirit, so that all my choices honor You.

p. 84 Leviticus 24:1 · Romans 14:22 The holy place contains the pure olive oil for light and the bread with frankincense, as offerings to the LORD. We live by the light and power of Holy Spirit and by every precious word of scripture. Holy Spirit and the Word are essential to our walk by faith. To study and to meditate on scripture and to be led by Holy Spirit is our daily life. This is the way we are kept on His path and in His will.

Lead me and teach me, as I study Your word, Lord. Unfold the scriptures by Your Holy Spirit, that I may know You.

p. 85 Leviticus 24:10 · Romans 15:1 Sin, with its consequences, cannot be ignored, since God's standard does not change. All things will be judged, but not until Messiah comes. As His voice in the earth today, we appeal to people's hearts, knowing that the goodness of God leads people to repentance. Romans 2:4. Also, we bear with one another's weaknesses, as He does with ours. However, for ourselves, we ask Him to deal with our hearts daily, always confessing and repenting of our own sin.

In Your great mercy, Lord, forgive me for judging others and justifying myself, so many times. I give You permission to judge my heart and actions, that no root of sin would remain undealt with. Work in all our hearts, dear Lord!

p. 85 Leviticus 24:17 · Romans 15:4 God is just and His punishment is according to the severity of the sin. We learn God's ways from everything that is written. Because He loves us, He gives us His instructions, so that we will want to stay within the boundaries of His will. Everything in the scriptures shows us that God is good and kind. He wants us to know what leads to life and what does not. He loves us!

Thank You for Your scriptures and all the wisdom revealed in every verse. Hide Your word in my heart, Lord.

p. 86 Leviticus 24:22 · Romans 15:5 God's heart, from the beginning, is for all people to know Him. Through Jesus' life and obedience, the Gentiles can join with His Jewish family and rejoice. Messiah has made us one in Him! Ephesians 2:15.

Thank You, that You have made Jew and Gentile, one new man through Jesus Christ our Lord. Open my eyes and understanding to fully appreciate that unity.

p. 86 Leviticus 24:23 · Romans 15:14 Because we have received the gift of God through Jesus Christ, we share with the Jews, all the promises of God. We also share the necessity of being disciplined by His word.

Lord, forgive me for so often receiving Your promises, without also receiving Your judgments. Teach me, Lord.

p. 87 Leviticus 25:1 · Romans 15:18 The land is also to have Sabbath rest, every seven years. To let the land rest for a year, takes great faith by the farmer and his family. True and tested belief in the faithfulness of God lies at the root of all our obedience. Doubt in God's faithfulness is the root of our disobedience. Paul's life is one of complete obedience to the Lord and to all that the Lord revealed to him. The power of God follows those who live in obedience to Him.

Lord, I believe, help my unbelief.

p. 88 Leviticus 25:8 · Romans 15:25 The fiftieth year is a time of Jubilee, a time to proclaim liberty. Land is returned to the original owners. This is a reminder that the land itself belongs to God and He is faithful. It is a time of rejoicing. The Jubilee is holy, set apart to God, showing us His goodness.

Bless our land and let our land rejoice in You, Lord.

p. 89 Leviticus 25:25 · Romans 15:30 We are connected to all those in God's family. The Lord desires us to help redeem others as He has redeemed us. Give what your brother needs, as the Lord leads. Take time to lift their need before the Lord and ask Him what we can do. Be guided by His Spirit of love.

Send me to that neglected person today, Lord, to show Your love.

p. 90 Leviticus 25:35 · Romans 15:31 We must always have a heart to serve and give to others. All our material goods are His, and our time belongs to Him. Let the Lord direct us each day in our service and giving. The need does not dictate our giving, but the Lord directs us as we look to Him.

Keep my heart open to others, always seeing them as You do.

p. 91 Leviticus 25:47 · Romans 15:32 The Lord has made provision for the poorest, even though he must sell himself to another, he can be redeemed by a relative or other caring person. But, if that mercy is not available to him, he will be freed in the Jubilee. The kindness of God desires that each person would know joy and liberty. The peace of God comes when we keep His word and honor Him.

Hide Your word in my heart, Lord, that I may always honor You.

p. 92 Leviticus 26:3 · Romans 16:25 When we receive the good news of Jesus Christ and believe in Him, we also receive all of God's many promises. He promises us abundant blessings, both spiritual and material, if we walk in His ways.

Teach me Your ways, Lord. I declare Your blessings over my life!

p. 93 Leviticus 26:14 · Romans 16:25 The good news has been made known to us, so that we are able to enter into a relationship with our Lord, to hear and to obey Him. "If you love Me, keep My commandments." John 14:15. God's promises include consequences, if we do not obey His words. For our sake, He makes all of His consequences known to us, as well as His blessings.

Lord, keep my heart tender before You, to always obey You, in all Your word.

p. 94 Leviticus 26:34 · Romans 16:25 The Lord decrees that the land will rest and enjoy its Sabbaths. The good news of Jesus, brings us and our land into a place of covenant with Him. He desires His people and their land to be redeemed and blessed. All creation is groaning for His appearing and revelation. Bless the ground under our feet. Bless the rivers and all He made.

I declare that the glory of the Lord will fill the earth as the waters cover the sea! Habakkuk 2:14.

p. 95 Leviticus 26:40 · Romans 16:25 When we sin, there is good news! We can repent and be restored to Him. The new covenant, through Jesus Christ, brings us into a relationship of oneness with the Father and the Son, as well as a oneness with all who believe. We want to maintain a pure heart before Him, continually. Repentance and returning to Him is always available to us. He will remember His covenant forever.

Lord, thank You that I can come to You today, confess my sins and be restored. I repent.

p. 96 Leviticus 27:1 · Romans 16:1 Vows are a personal choice and each person chooses whether or not they will enter in. How far we pursue the Lord, how deep we choose to know Him, is in our hands. The process of sanctification is determined by our desire to bring our mind, emotions and will into alignment with Him. Let's pursue the Lord!

Show me, Lord, the eternal value of daily seeking to know You and daily being sanctified, body, soul and spirit. I submit myself and align myself with You in everything.

p. 97 Leviticus 27:14 · Romans 16:2b Not only do we dedicate ourselves to Him, but we dedicate all our material blessings to Him, as well. In that Day, when we assemble for Christ's judgment or valuation of our time on earth, let's be those whose hearts have been purified from our selfish life, and instead, we are filled with His life and His love for all people. This is the fruit that is holy to the Lord.

Lord, I lay my life down, that I may live by Your life. Work this in my heart and soul every day.

p. 98 Leviticus 27:26 · Romans 16:17 The dangers of stumbling and dividing among ourselves are always with us. Purpose in our hearts to keep that unity with the Lord and with all who are His. The enemy's plans are defeated, as we pursue the Lord and keep our hearts clear of any prejudice against another.

Lord, forgive me of any judgment or prejudice against a brother or sister in Your family. I am one with all those who call upon Your name!

p. 99 Leviticus 27:30 · Romans 16:21 Are we bearing fruit to the Lord? Thirty or sixty or a hundred-fold? Does the Lord have a return on the investment of His life in us?

Lord, let my heart be good ground and let me receive every word You speak. Plant Your word deep in my heart and let it bear much fruit to Your glory.

p. 99 Leviticus 27:34 · Romans 16:24 All of the commandments are full of the goodness of God. Each one is a revelation of Who He is. The commandments reveal that He is always thinking of our needs and weaknesses and making a way for us to walk in unity with Him. When we see Leviticus in this light, we enter into the depths of Torah.

Let me see Jesus, in every scripture, Lord. He is truly every word and every letter!
